Our flagship ale!

ABV: 4.6% IBU: 19 Blacktop Blonde is our homage to you, the tailgater. It is our way to say, “We see you out there on the blacktop and we know you’re thirsty.” This is why you deserve a 100% natural craft beer brewed with the same stuff cavemen used thousands of years ago. Named with the help of “Jay the Tailgate Guy,” this is an American blonde ale that stays true to form. Bold use of magnum and cascade hops create a soft, subtle spice that sets this easy drinker apart from the rest. Beautiful golden malts complete this light coloured, easy drinking ale. Crack one of these beauties wherever you are, and in the immortal words of Jay the Tailgate Guy, “Grill on.”

A session style version of the hop bomb favourite!

ABV: 4.7% IBU: 44 The Cuban Missile Crisis, the Space Race, Baseball’s Homerun Race of ’98. Let’s face it, Americans are no stranger to an arms race. Enter, craft beer. Breweries everywhere are dumping hops in by the pound and ramping up alcohol content, leaving dedicated hophead tailgaters with few choices for responsible drinking. We bring you the session-style India Pale Ale. Session-style means moderate alcohol content. This is your chance to enjoy a full flavor, aggressively hopped IPA – without melting your face off. Handcrafted with Cascade and Magnum hops, this IPA is influenced by IPA City, USA (San Diego) and perfected for tailgaters around the world. Grab this bouquet of liquid hopped glory and enjoy full flavored drinking, not sipping.
